Buckland Monachorum PL20 7LQ

The Garden House, in a valley on the western edge of Dartmoor National Park, is set over 10 acres of stunning gardens. Described by BBC presenter, Toby Buckland as “a plantsman’s paradise”, the gardens offer something for not just the seasoned gardener but also those just wishing to enjoy a day out in beautiful surroundings and to be immersed in colour, scent and wonderful views at every turn. A cafe with cosy seating indoors or a bright south facing terrace outdoors, offers light refreshments and cakes, during opening hours and a plant centre on exit means everyone can take a little bit of The Garden House’s inspiration home with them!

Cholwell Riding Stables

Mary Tavy, Tavistock, PL19 9QG

Cholwell Riding Stables is a family-run business that has been providing escorted rides and riding lessons on Dartmoor for nearly forty years.

Situated on the A386 between Okehampton and Tavistock, next to the famous ‘Wheal Betsy’ Silver Lead mine, they are perfectly located to ride straight out onto Dartmoor with no need for any road work. This allows you to enjoy your whole ride on the moor and admire its breathtaking views (weather permitting!)

Cholwell caters for all types of rider from the complete novice to the most experienced rider and has a wide selection of quality, fit and well-mannered horses.
