

DUCHY HOUSE - FORESTRY WALKS & CREAM TEAS

Duchy House

visitdartmoor.co.uk/accommodation/duchy-house
Tavistock Road, Princetown, Devon, PL20 6QF

Duchy House B&B in Princetown – at the heart of Dartmoor – is a two-minute walk from the village pubs, cafes and shops. Six en-suite rooms, each with a Nespresso coffee machine, flat-screen TV, free WiFi and complimentary toiletries.

If you enjoy cycling, walking or just relaxing then Duchy House is the perfect place to stay. Numerous walks and cycle trails start from the front door, mountain bikes are available to hire and the hosts can help you plan a ride or walk and even provide you with a homemade packed lunch. For your peace of mind, they have dedicated secure bike storage and private off road parking.

The ancient town of Tavistock is only seven miles away, and several National Trust properties and moorland golf courses are within easy reach.

Bellever Forest

visitdartmoor.co.uk/attraction/bellever-forest-forestry-england
Bellever Forest, Yelverton, PL20 6TP

Whether you are looking for an exhilarating walk or a gentle meander through the forest, Bellever can cater for every ability. Choose from one of the way-marked walking trails or join the historic bridleway, The Lych Way. There are also numerous archaeological sites to discover as you explore Bellever – why not try the History Hunters trail, brought to life by the Moor Than Meets the Eye project?

Bellever also has a fascinating range of wildlife, including Dartmoor ponies. The Dartmoor Pony Heritage Trust is a registered charity dedicated to the preservation of the Dartmoor pony breed. Their pedigree and approved heritage Dartmoor ponies graze the forest, helping to keep the vegetation down and create diverse grassland areas for wildlife.

Two Bridges Hotel

visitdartmoor.co.uk/accommodation/two-bridges-hotel
Princetown, PL20 6SW

“An oasis at the heart of Dartmoor” (Sunday Times)

Looking for a truly special hotel to escape the everyday rat race? You’ve found it!

The location is unique – perched on the banks of the West Dart river, with breathtaking Dartmoor landscapes in every direction.

Step through the front door, and step into a world of timeless elegance, luxury and warmth. Cosy lounges, blazing log fires, award-winning dining and beautiful rooms.

The hotel’s restaurant is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, and non-residents are very welcome. The award-winning menus are created and brought to life by executive chef Mike Palmer, with a strong emphasis on local, seasonal produce – sourced from Dartmoor wherever possible.